JOHN<sup>1</sup>MAYNARD, the first immigrant ancestor of the name, settled in Sudbury, Mass. about 1638 and was one of the forty-seven who shared in the division of Sudbury Meadows in 1639. Hudson, in his history of Marlborough, Mass. says that he (Maynard) was one of the Selectmen of Sudbury.

According to a statement of one of the descendants who appeared to have been interested more or less in family genealogy, and to have been fairly well advised, he (John Maynard) married first in England, Mary Starr, <sup>1638</sup> and had one or two children born in England. She died and he married second, in Sudbury, <sup>1646</sup> Mass., June 16, 1646, Mary Axdell or Axtell, <sup>1646</sup> probably widow of Thomas Axdell or Axtell.

June 25, 1747, "Nahum Manord, a minor of Windham, aged 14 years, son of Zachariah Manard, late of Groton, dec'd, "made choice of Ichabod Downing of Windham, as his guardian. (Prob. Rec. Windham, Vol. 2, p. 137). He went to Windham with his brothers and lived there for a time. He went back to Groton later and purchased land there Dec. 25, 1754; this tract was described as being "in the township of Groton or Norwich, at Brewster's Neck"; that is, it was on the line between the two towns, on the east side of the Thames river, and on the north side of Poquetannock Cove.

On Feb. 24, 1757, "Nahum Maynor, of Groton, Conn.", sold all his right to certain land in Groton, to Ephriam Upton, of Windham, Ct., "land which was given me by my honored father - - - bounded by land given by my father to my sister Elizabeth - - -".

(Land Ev. Groton, Conn. 12-174).

Miscellaneous records from notes of Mrs. Eliza E. Rogers, Genealogist, 99
Division Street, Norwich, Conn.

"Zachariah Maynard came from Marlborough, Mass. to New London, Conn. according to the church record. He married Mary Geer, born March 26, 1671 at New London. "August 25, 1700. Zecharias Maynard (formerly living at Marlborough) and his wife (ye dauter of Geo. Geers of this town) had yr child baptised, Zecharias." (

(Later History of the First Church of Christ in New London, Conn. page 463).

"His wife's parents and relatives owned large tracts of land on the east side of the Thames river (in the early days known as the Pequet or Great river) in the section now included in the northern part of the present town of Ledyard. The land on the east side of the river was originally in the town of New London, Conn. as far north as Pequetanock Cove, and the strip called 'Brewster's Neck' was claimed by both New London and Norwich. In 1705 this eastern part of New London was made a separate town called "Groton". As Groton grew and expanded it was divided into North and South Societies or Parishes and in 1836 the north section was incorporated as the town of Ledyard.

Zachariah Maynard purchased a farm in 1697 near the Geers and Allyns. Here he lived the remainder of his life. A few glimpses are caught of him occasionally, two references to him being found in the diary of Joshua Hempstead, a New London man who held many offices and was well acquainted with all his townsmen. Under date of October 30, 1713, he writes "I went to Robt. Allyns - - - in mr Richd Christophers Long boat. I stayed at Allyns all night. Mr. Hallam also he bought 1000 Shingles & 150 Clabboards from Zachariah Mainer for me." (page 29) On July 23, 1723, he says, "Tuesd 23, Some Rain. I went to Lt Christopher Averys in Groton to an arbitration with him between Zack Mainer & Jabez Attwood. Stayed all night. Wednsd 24 Cloudy wee finished & I came home by daylight".

In 1722 he gave a tract of land to his son Zachariah and on April 19, 1735, Zachariah Maynor and Zachariah Maynor Junr, both of Groton, New London county, Conn. make a settlement of the bounds of the "land said Maynor gave his son Zachariah Maynor Junr, by deed of 7 February, 1721/2", adjoining his father's land. (L.Rec.Groton, Conn. 3 - 187).

"Zachariah Maner & Mary Geer were married September 23, 1697.

Zachariah thier son born Apr. 22, 1700

Vol. 1 page 106.

Nahum Maynor, son of Zachariah and Mary Maynor was born May 31, 1733
Elizabeth thier daughter was born Feb. 14, 1735/8 (Vital Rec.Groton, Conn. 1 - 126).

The births of Elnathan and Elijah, sons of Zachariah were not recorded. The family lived some distance from the town clerk's office. It is probable that the births of Nahum and Elizabeth were recorded after the father's death, and at the time the mother was appointed their guardian.

The will of Zachariah Maner of Groton, "being sick and weak", was dated March 15, 1738, and the witnesses made oath to it on March 30, 1738, so Zachariah died between the dates, 15th and 30th of March, 1738/9.

To his wife Mary he leaves all the movable estate, except £115 due out of money from Humphrey Avery in the year 1740 and the use and improvement of the farm and house during her widowhood.

To son Elnathan Maner, £100 out of money due me by Humphrey Avery in the year 1740 in December.

To my four children, Hannah, Mary, Nahum and Elizabeth, my farm which I dwell on, to be equally divided between them at the end of my wife's widowhood.

To my daughter Mary, £14 from money due me from Humphrey Avery in the year 1740, and the reason I give it is because I borrowed it from her, with interest.

Wife Mary and daughter Hannah, to be executors.

(Probate Records, New London, Conn.: Book D, pps. 317, 318).

The inventory of the estate of Zachariah Mainer, late of Groton, deceased, was taken March 30, 1738, and included the farm and buildings, bond for money, oct.; amount, £929, 2s, 7d.

This inventory was presented to the Court of Probate held in New London, Conn. April 11 1739 (old style) by Mrs. Mary Mainor, executor of the will of her husband Mr. Zachariah Mainor Late of Groton, deceased. (Ibid, D-320).

The will and inventory were exhibited at a Court of Probate held in New London, April 11, 1739, accepted and ordered recorded.

(Probate Journal, Vol. 4, page 48).

At a Court of Probate held Sept. 1, 1739, the Court appointed Mrs. Mary Mayner of Groton, guardian to her children Nahum and Elizabeth Maynor, minors under seven years of age, she giving bond with Humphrey Avery as surety.

At the same Court, Mrs. Maynor of Groton, Relict of Zachariah Maynor late of Groton, deceased, appeared in Court in the capacity of guardian to Nahum and Elizabeth, two of the children of sd deceased, and represented that her husband by his last will gave to his children his land at the end of her widowhood, and said Mary Maynor now consents that such division shall be made immediately. The Court consented and appointed freeholders to make such division. She also exhibited her account. (Prob. Journal, 4 - 81).

By order of a Court of Probate held September 1, 1739, division of the land of Zachariah Maynor late of Groton deceased, was made September 7, 1739, in accordance with the will.

To Humphrey Avery Esq., on account of Hannah Wintworth of Norwich, Conn., widow, and Mary Maynor of Preston, two of the children of sd Maynor, deceased, land bounded on land given to his son Zachariah - - - .

To Nahum Maynor one of the children, a certain part.

To Elizabeth Maynor, her part.

(Prob. Records, D - 418).

The will of George Geer of Groton, Conn., dated June 5, 1723, mentions daughter Mary, and granddaughters Hannah and Mary Mainer.

(Prob. Rec., New London, Conn. Book C, p. 181).

Maynard, Zachariah "formerly lived at Marlborough, Mass." settled east of the river, beyond Robert Allyn, in 1679. (Caulkins' History of New London, Conn., page 265).

"Zachariah Maynard or Mayner, purchased a farm in 1697, near Robert Allyn and Thomas Rose in Ledyard. His wife was a daughter of Robert Geer" (Same, page 354). The last reference was made in connection with William Mynard who married Lydia Richards; Miss Caulkins says the genealogy of this William Mynard family is obscure on account of the variations of the name.

Ledyard was originally a part of New London, Conn., on the east side of the Thames river; in 1705 this section was set off as the town of Groton and in 1836, this section called "North Groton" was made a separate town named Ledyard.

History of Ledyard, Conn., page 127:

"Mary Geer, daughter of George and Sarah (Allyn) Geer, born March 26, 1671, married Zachariah Mainer and lived near Allyn's Point adjoining the farm of her grandfather, Robert Allyn."

Short Sketch of Robert Allyn, Ibid, p. 88; Short sketch of George Geer, Ibid, pps. 125, 6, 7; History of New London, Conn. pps. 375, 415:

"Mary Geer was born March 26, 1671/2; she was daughter of George Geer who died at Groton in 1726 aged 105, and his wife, Sarah Allyn. George Geer married Sarah Allyn Feb. 17, 1658; she was daughter of Robert Allyn who was born in England in 1608, and died in that part of New London which was afterwards incorporated as Groton, Conn., in 1683, aged 75. His wife Sarah died in 1683. Robert Allyn was one of the founders of Norwich, Conn."

See History of Norwich, Conn. page 156, and History of New London, Conn. pages 97, 157, 259 and 354.

It appears that Elnathan Maynard, after his marriage, lived for a time in Preston, Conn. The following extracts from land records of the different towns show the dates of removal.

1740/41, March 11. Ichabod Allyn of Groton, Conn. sold 52 1/2 acres of land in Groton, with buildings, to Elnathan Maynor of same Groton. (L. Ev. Groton, Conn. 4 - 126).

1758, Feb. 6. Elnathan Maynard of Windham, Conn., for L16, quitclaimed to Thomas Hall of Groton, Conn., right to a certain piece of land in Groton, about 7 acres - "being the whole of the land on which an execution was made in favor of sd Maynard against sd Hall" (L. Ev. Groton, Conn. 5-187).

By the will of his father-in-law Matthias Button, Elnathan Maynard was appointed executor, with the widow, July, 1759. By this will, "daughter Bial and her husband Elnathan Maynor of Windham" received lands in Preston and Stonington, Conn., with her sister Ziporah Thomas.

The births of the children of Elnathan and Bial (Button) Maynard are recorded at Windham, Conn., Book A, page 242, except Stephen, called "youngest son" in his father's will. #### ANCESTERS of BIAL (BUTTON) MAYNARD.

The following memoir is compiled from notes of Mrs. E. E. Rogers, Genealogist, of Norwich, Conn., and from "Earliest Decendants of Matthias Button", by A. Button, (1889).

"MATTHIAS<sup>1</sup> BUTTON, born 1607, came to America with Gov. John Endicott, and first settled at Salem, Mass., where he landed Sept. 6, 1628.

His stay at Salem seems to have been brief removing thence to Boston where he is found among the earliest settlers and identified himself with the 1st church some time prior to 1633, where at least two of his children were baptised.

He removed to Ipswich, where he was a Commoner in 1641, thence to Haverhill in 1646, where he lived and reared a family.

Children by 1st wife Lettyce, were:

- i. Mary Button, b. 1633, in Boston; m. Edward Yeomans.
- ii. David Button, b. 1634 in Boston; d. infancy.

AMOS<sup>5</sup> MAYNARD (Elnathan<sup>4</sup>, Zachariah<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) born in Windham, Conn. June 14, 1743; died in Montgomery, Hambden County, Mass. July 31, 1831 "aged 88"; married Elizabeth Button, April 20, 1769, at Canterbury, Conn. Recorded also at Windham, Conn. She was a descendant of Matthias (2) and Mary (Neff) Button, who settled in Plainfield, Conn. She died at Montgomery, Mass. Jan. 16, 1829. They resided in Windham, Conn. until 1779 or - later when they removed to Montgomery, Mass. where it appears that Amos was a prominent man until his death. He was a Selectman of Montgomery in 1785, 1787, 1790, 1794 and 1801. (see Copeland's Hambden County, Mass. Vol. 3, pages 341 - 342). We have no records of his children, but find the following Maynards at Montgomery and have no doubt that some of them were children of Amos and Elizabeth (Button) Maynard; however as the names Mary, Molly and Polly are synonymous, we may hardly presume that the three were sisters; However one of them might have been sister Mary and one might have been a daughter of Reuben Maynard, of whom we certainly have not got a complete list of children. At any rate we give the records as probably belonging to the Windham, Conn. family.

i. Mary Mainard of Montgomery, married, June 15, 1792, at Worthington, Mass. Elias Monk, of Worthington. (Vital Rec. of Worthington, Mass.).

ii. Polly Maynard, m. int. at Montgomery Mass., March 5, 1796, Adonijah Fitch, of Montville, Conn. (Montgomery, Mass. Vital Records)

iv. Eben(ezer?) Maynard, m. int. at Montgomery, Mass., Feb. 1, 1806, Lydia Philips.

v. Dolly Maynard, m. int. at Montgomery, Mass. Feb. 1, 1803, Holly Clark, who was born in Blandford, Mass. Aug. 11, 1773, and died in Montgomery, Mass. "of lung fever", April 17, 1847. He was son of James and Ruth (Holly) Clark. His father was son of Oliver and Elizabeth (-----) Clark, and was born in Canterbury, Conn. July 5, 1740; married at Norwich, Conn. Feb. 28, 1765, Ruth, dau. of James and Ruth (-----) Holly, born at Hopkintown, R.I. Dec. 31, 1744. Oliver Clark, father of James and grandfather of Holly, died at Montgomery, Mass. Jan. 3, 1798, "aged 83". Elizabeth, widow of Oliver Clark, died at Montgomery, Mass. Aug. 17, 1804, "in 94th year".

Holly and Dolly (Maynard) Clark had the following children and grandchildren recorded at Montgomery, Mass.:

Conn. Feb. 22, 1752. His wife's name was Mary. He probably removed to Massachusetts with the rest of the family in 1783. He resided in Montgomery and Norwich, Mass. and probably at other towns. Whether he ever removed from Massachusetts, or when, or where he died is matters not known to the writer.

During the War of the Revolution, he served as Private, from the town of Windham, Conn. in the company of Capt. Obadiah Johnson of Canterbury, Third regt. of Gen. Putnam, May 11, 1775 to Dec. 16, 1775. (Conn.
Milit. Hist. p. 55., and also p. 8).

The following (evidently incomplete list)
three children were recorded at Montgomery, Mass.:

MOSES<sup>5</sup> MAYNARD (Elnathan<sup>4</sup>, Zachariah<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) born in Windham, Windham County, Conn. Nov. 3, 1756; Removed to Massachusetts in 1783 and settled in Norwich, and Montgomery of that state, and possibly lived in other Mass. towns; he removed to Worthington, Franklin County, Ohio, with brother Stephen and others, in 1806. He married Mary Griswold "both of Norwich", in Norwich, Mass. July 28, 1785 (Town rec. Norwich, Mass). The various records show him to have been a Resident of Norwich, Mass., 1783 to April, 1791, and of Montgomery, Mass., Nov., 1792 to Feb., 1797. He was a member of the school committee of Norwich in 1788, and same year, May 26th, the town of Norwich voted "not to Sink Stephen, Rubin and Moses Maynards' Minister rates". He had four children recorded at Norwich, and three recorded at Montgomery. He, and his brother Stephen, and others, removed to, and settled in Worthington, Franklin County, Ohio in 1806, where we find him mentioned as one of the incorporators of the Worthington Academy in 1808. (Old N.W.Gen.Qr., Vol. 6 - 159). He is also mentioned as being associated with his brother Stephen and Samuel Beach, as commissioners in the case of Edward Phelps vs Jonas Stansbury, on a petition for the partition of land, Feb. 1, 1808. (Old N.W.Gen. Qr. Vol. 10 - 130).

He was a Revolutionary War Soldier from Windham, Conn. (see Adj. Gen. Report, p. 508)

Children:

1. Eber, b. at Norwich, Mass. May 6, 1786. He, with his brothers, Asa and Joel, were mentioned as Privates on a muster Roll for a Battalion Muster at Worthington, Ohio May 27, 1808; his cousin Samuel, (son of Stephen Maynard) was also mentioned as Sergeant of the same Battalion. (Old N.W. Gen. Qr. Vol. 6 - 153).

ii. Asa, b. at Norwich, Mass. Nov. 27, 1787.

iii. Joel, b. at Norwich, Mass. May 5, 1789.

iv. Achsha, b. at Norwich, Mass. April 7, 1791; m. at Worthington, Ohio, Aug. 31, 1815, by Recompence Stansbury, J.P., to Orange Johnson, who was born at Mansfield, Conn. Feb. 7, 1790, and died at Worthington Ohio, Nov. 28, 1876. Achsah died at Worthington, Ohio May 21, 1862; both were buried in the Green Lawn Cemetery. The inscription on her gravestone credits her with having been born in Montgomery, Mass. but the records of both Norwich and Montgomery, Mass. show that she was born in Norwich.

v. Moses, b. at Montgomery, Mass. Nov. 12, 1792; m. at Worthington, Ohio, by Nathan Emery, J.P., Jan. 1, 1826, to Crissa Hanks.

vi. Electa, b. at Montgomery, Mass. Feb. 19, 1795.

vii. Apollis, b. at Montgomery, Mass. Sept. 12, 1796.

viii. Lovisa; In a paper found in the public library at Columbus, Ohio, the name, "Lovisa" was included in a list of the children of Moses Maynard, with the statement that all of the children were born in Massachusetts before the family removed to Ohio.

Stephen Maynard, of Windham, Conn. served as "fifer" from August 2, 1778 to Sept. 12, 1778 in Capt. Jonatnan's Rudd's Company, Col. Samuel Chapman commanding the regiment (Adgt. Gen. Rept., Conn. Men of the Rev. War, page 530). His brothers, Cyrus, Reuben and Moses were also, all Revolutionary War Soldiers.

When the family removed from Windham, Conn. in 1763, it appears that they first settled within the limits of Norwich, Mass., near the border of Montgomery, Mass.

April 21, 1783, Moses Maynard and Stephen Maynard bought of Dr. Ebenezer Barnard, of Deerfield, and of James Fairman and Phenix Mixer, a tract of land in Norwich, Mass. in the "Ingersall Wedge". (Hamp. Deeds).

Oct. 3, 1783, Stephen Maynard of Norwich, Hampshire County, Mass., yeoman, for £6, 5s bought of Jonathan Baccorn of Norwich, act., 32 acres of land in "Ingersall Wedge" adjoining the above. (Hampshire Deeds).

Sept. 17, 1789, Stephen Maynard appears to have been residing in Northampton, Mass. the date that his daughter Olive was born in that town. He appears within the limits of Montgomery, Mass., April 18, 1791, when "Moses Maynard of Norwich, in the County of Hampshire, and Stephen Maynard of Montgomery", same county, for one hundred and sixty two pounds, sold land in Norwich which they had purchased of Ebenezer Barnard of Deerfield, containing, by estimate, 230 acres and 116 rods. (Hamp.Deeds 31-151)

It appears that Reuben, Moses and Stephen Maynard were all three living in Norwich, Mass., May 26, 1788, when that town voted "Not to Sink Stephen, Rubin and Moses Maynard's Minister rates".

Stephen Maynard, with his brother Moses and others, removed to Worthington, Franklin County, Ohio in 1806. At worthington we find them all communicants of the Saint John's Episcopal church. Under date of June 12, 1914, Mr. W E Maynard of Kingman, Kans., referring to the Old St. John's Episcopal church at Worthington, Ohio, writes "Stephen Maynard "gave the walnut lumber for the pews in the church, and my father, Elnathan, and his brother Stephen, rolled the walnut logs onto the ice of the Olentangy, hitched an old sorrel horse to them and drew them some miles down stream to the sawmill where they were sawed."

Stephen Maynard was Justice of the Peace at Worthington, Ohio, several years, 1808, 1819 and 1820, and in that capacity, performed quite a number of marriage ceremonies.

In the Old Northwest Genealogical Quarterly, Vol. 10 page 130, we find the following about a party of immigrants from Connecticut who were settling at Alum Creek in Blendon Township, having arrived there Aug. 23, 1806:- "Here Ethan Palmer, who had gone ahead two days before to the settlement at Worthington, met them, and with his were Isreal Case, David Bristol, Ezra Griswold, Levi Pinney and Stephen Maynard, of the Worthington settlement, to greet the new settlers, and extend them a pressing invitation to come to their homes and remain until they could erect comfortable cabins, and assuring them that they would assist in every possible way."

xvi. Cyrus, b. Aug. 19, 1822; probably died young.

Dorcas (Cornish-Pinney), second wife of Stephen Maynard, married first, (probably in Simsbury, Conn.), about 1801, either Abner Putnam Pinney, or Azariah Pinney. Abner Putnam Pinney was born in Simsbury, Conn. Feb. 28, 1779; Azariah Pinney was born, same place, July 26, 1775; in either case they were sons of Abner and Ruth (Gillet) Pinney who removed to Worthington, Ohio in 1804, and were one of the first families that settled there.

Dorcas (Cornish) by her first husband, ----- Pinney, had. (1) Jefferson Pinney, b. April 15, 1802; (2) Azariah Pinney, b. Sept. 11, 1804; (3) Dorcas Pinney, b. April 16, 1806; (4) James Pinney, b. Oct. 10, 1808; (5) Amanda Pinney, b. April 21, 1810; (6) Charles Pinney, b. Jan. 1, 1812.

This made a combined family of 22 children.

THE WRIGHT FAMILY OF MONTGOMERY, MASSACHUSETTS,
Or the family of Elizabeth (Wright) Maynard.

The writer has no authentic records of Samuel Wright prior to his settlement in Montgomery, Mass. Doubtless, research in New London and Windham counties, Conn. would disclose some interesting data, but we do not care to incur this additional expense. His early history is based on tradition, which, doubtlessly, is based on some facts.

This tradition is, in substance, that Samuel Wright was born in Londonderry, Ulster, Ireland, of Scotch decent. When about 16 years of age he was impressed into the British Navy as an apprentice seaman. The term of his apprenticeship expired while in port at New London, Conn., and he was permitted to accept his discharge and remain in the colony; married Philena Bill of Montville, near New London, Conn. During the Revolutionary War he enlisted in the sea service and served with Capt. John Paul Jones. That he married Philena Bill, is a matter of record; that a Samuel Wright (who might easily enough have been this man), served under Paul Jones and others, is also a matter of record.

"Wright, Samuel: Private, Sloop Providence commanded by Capt. John Paul Jones: List of officers and men entitled to prize in the ship Alexander captured Sept. 20, 1777. (6)

"Receipt dated June 4, 1783 for wages for service to May 10, 1783 on board the frigate Hauge commanded by Capt. John Manley."

(Mass. Sol. & Sail. of the Rev. War, 17-955)

The Alexander was captured near Cape Britain, Sept. 20, 1776.

"The Roll of officers and men on board the frigate Alliance, August 20, 1783, signed by Captain John Barry, her commander, gives 'Samuel Wright, carpenter crew, entered June 19, 1783.' " (Extracts from correspondence of Chas. W. Stewart, Supt. Library and Naval War Records, Washington, D.C. - June 4, 1914).

The Alliance was the last ship left in the Navy at the close of the Revolutionary War, and was sold at Philadelphia, June 3, 1785.

SAMUEL WRIGHT was born Sept. 16, 1736, and died at Montgomery, Mass. March 31, 1817, "aged 80". He probably settled in Montgomery about 1785, where all the authentic records so far found by the writer, pertaining to this family, are found in the printed vital records of that town, and in Copeland's History of Hamden County, Massachusetts, in which latter history, we find that Samuel Wright was Selectman of Montgomery in 1790. The birth records of himself his wife and all his children are shown in the printed vital records of Montgomery, but nothing therein to show where the events took place.

He married Philena Bill of Montville, Conn. Her birth is recorded at Montgomery, (as "Philena Bill"), July 11, 1738. Philena Wright died at Montgomery, Mass. March 25, 1819, "aged 80". The following is a brief synopsis of her ancestry. - extracted from the Bill Genealogy - by Ledyard Bill -1867)

John<sup>1</sup> Bill, called 12 years of age in the ship's list (which is supposed to have been an erroneous copy of the original, or a mistake of the purser) came to Boston, Mass. in the ship Hopewell in 1635. John Bill died in Jan., 1638/9. On the 24th day of that month "widow Dorothy Bill was reported as in the household of Richard Tuttell of Boston, who gave bond for her not becoming a public charge. There is no mention of her husband unless the John Bill who had just died had been that person, so the conclusion was drawn by the author of the Bill genealogy that the passenger in the Hopewell, her husband, and the person that had just died were one and the same person. The author of the Bill genealogy was also of the opinion that widow Dorothy Bill was a sister to Richard Tuttell.

The Bill Genealogy also credits John and Dorothy Bill with having five children, born in England:- James Bill, b. 1615; Thomas Bill, b. 1618; Philip Bill, b. 1620; John Bill, b. 1622, and Mary Bill, b. 1624. Dorothy Bill and her son James, bought a house and land in Boston, 27 Feb., 1638/40, where the deed says they were then living.

Philip (2) Bill was at Ipswich, Mass. in 1663, and at New London, Conn. in 1668. He died July 8, 1689, leaving a widow Hannah, who married 2nd, Samuel Bucknall. Philip and Hannah Bill had eight children, of whom Philip (3) Bill, the eldest son, was born about 1658, and married 1st, Elizabeth dau. of Andrew Lester of Groton, Conn. and by her had six children. He married 2nd, Mary ----- and by her had two children, one of whom was Thomas (4) Bill, born in Groton, Conn. Sept. 26, 1705; lived at Montville, a part of old New London, in New London county, Conn. He married Abigail ----- who survived him. In his will he mentions ten children. His daughter, Philena, (probably the oldest child) was the one who married Samuel Wright. She was born (according to the printed vital records of Montgomery, Mass.) July 7, 1738, and died at Montgomery Mass. March 25, 1819.

The vital records of Montgomery, Mass. show the birth records of the children of Samuel Wright, Sr. but does not show where the events took place, nor the parentage. Proof of parentage lies in private family records.

Children and descendants of Samuel and Philena (Bill) Wright, recorded at Montgomery, Mass.:

i. Sabra (or Sabrina) Wright, b. Sept. 4, 1756; no further records of her.

ii. Samuel Wright, Jr., b. Jan. 4, 1762;

As shown by the Worthington, Ohio records, he married first, at Worthington, Dec. 12, 1816, Mary Philips. She died Aug. 23, 1830, aged 39, as shown by her grave stone inscription in the Green Lawn Cemetery. Only one child is recorded to them, Gravestone ins.:

i. Henry H., b. June 8, 1830; d. July 15, 1830.

We did not find any record of his second marriage, but as shown by church records,her name was Laurinda. The records of St.John's Episcopal church at Worthington, Ohio, show, as communicants, 1833 to 1844, Stephen and Laurinda Maynard, and show that they removed to Tipton, Iowa in 1844, and that Laurinda Maynard died at Tipton, Iowa Aug. 31, 1872. The Worthington church records also show the following births and baptisms of children of Stephen and Laurinda Maynard:

ii. Mary, bapt. Aug., 1833, by E Burr. Sponsors and witnesses, Parents and Mrs. Elnathan Maynard.

iii. Henry Hobart, b. Sept. 6, 1835; bapt. Jan. --, 1836, by E Burr. Sponsors and witnesses, Parents and Elnathan Maynard. Dr. Hobart Maynard resided first, at Tipton, Iowa, where he reared a family. Sometime after 1880 he removed to, and settled in Los Angeles, Calif. where he was a very popular man and physician, and where he died sometime prior to 1910. He was a surgeon in the Union army during the Civil war, and after the war he owned a drugstore, and was a practitioner of medicine and surgery in the vicinity of Tipton, Iowa. The widow was living in Los Angeles, Calif. in 1910. That he was always known by his middle name, "Hobart" instead of the first given name, "Henry" may have been a custom of the family and parents, to distinguish between him and the deceased infant, Henry H., who died in 1830.

iv. Laura Cynthia, b. Feb. 12, 1838.

v. Elizabeth Dorcas, bapt. Jan. 30, 1842, by E S Elder. She was teaching school in Story City, Iowa in the fall of 1869; from which place she wrote a letter to Hannah Stevens (mother of the writer) under date of Dec. 9, 1869, addressed "Dear Cousin:" She signed her name, "E D Maynard". The letter was an excellent composition and a beautiful feminine hand. She stated that Story City was a Norwegian settlement, and that she was lonesome for want of American associates, and appealed to her correspondent (Hannah Stevens) to correspond with her.

"Obituary"

James Wright Maynard was born in Worthington, Ohio January 4th 1807. He died in Mt. Pleasant Ia., January 31st 1893, aged 86 years and 27 days.

Dr. Maynard as he was familiarly called, came from an early New England ancestry. His parents moved from Massachusetts in 1806, and settled in Franklin county Ohio, and were therefor pioneers in that state. The subject of this memoir was well acquainted with the pioneer life in Ohio, and loved to recount in his later days the hardships and exploits of the early settlers. The material prosperity, and the development and advanced civilization and the introduction of railroads, of steam navigation, the new and ever improving inventions of agricultural implements and the general progress of life, were matters of personal history to him, themes of which he never tired.

In August 1839, he removed to Iowa, with his family, settling in New London where he engaged in the practice of medicine and moved to his farm near town where he resided for over forty years. Dr. Maynard was closely identified with the early progress of state and looked with pride upon the results of the early history. In matters of religion, politics and reform he was ever active. Though early trained in the Episcopal church to which his parents belonged, he united with the Methodist Episcopal church the first year of his residence in the state. His home became also the home of the early itinerant. Broad in his religious views, he looked with pride upon the progress of the church and all churches, in building up the kingdom of Christ. In politics he was a Whig in the early days. He took part in all antislavery agitations and at a time, when in Iowa, to be an abolitionist was not to be respected by all the community. Sometime in the early forties, an abolition orator came to New London to speak in the interest of anti-slavery. A large party in the community threatened to hang the speaker if he should make the attempt. For this purpose a scaffold was built and all preparations made to carry their threats into execution. When the time arrived Dr. Maynard and a number of other determined men armed themselves as a body-guard of protection to the speaker. The pro-slavery party however, so far carried out their threats as to hang and burn the speaker in effigy. How impossible do such events look to day. On the formation of the Republican party, he gave it his hearty support. When the slaves were freed as one of the great exegencies of the war, he looked upon it as also a result of his early anti-slavery views, brought about by political action. The progress of temperance reform had his largest sympathies and aid. And gladley would he have hastened the day, had it been in his power to have given the death knell to the great evil. Though he was a man of very decided views, yet they were formed with judgement and discrimination. In his home life the warmth and kindness of his heart was readily felt by those nearest him and by those who knew him best. He will be missed by the community where he lived so long. But the weight of his years had ended his work, yet the influence of his life will go on in the life of others. "
